

JOB DESCRIPTION

SENIOR CREATIVE ILLUSTRATOR / VISUALISER

There's exciting times ahead at Taxi Studio. With a suite of diverse, brilliant briefs coming at us from all corners of the planet, our studio's growing and we're looking for key superstars to come along on the journey.

The overall purpose of the Senior Creative Illustrator / Visualiser is to be an essential and integral part of Creative team, bringing a diverse yet specialised skillset that supports the studio in transforming our creative intent into world class illustrations and visuals that wow the client, adding that touch of magic that sets us apart from our peers.

You will be:

1. A wizard of versatility – that has the mac skills and expertise to adapt your illustration / visualisation style to suit the needs of the project at hand (vector, photorealistic, sketch etc). Just as adept with a pen and pencil in your hand as you are in adobe creative suite or C4D.
2. A master of your craft – highly skilled and commercially experienced you will have the ability to work in a fast-paced creative environment, able to bring to life diverse referenced styles through all phases of any given project – applying the highest level of detail and craft along the way.
3. A cardinal of collaboration – with a fantastic team playing attitude and strong work ethic you will support the creative team in bringing creative ideas to life with your illustration / visualisation skills whilst also offering up new solutions on style and art direction.

You will report directly to the Head of Visualisation who will regularly mentor and coach you to improve the quality of your output and thinking, as well as agreeing your performance objectives and development needs through your annual PDR.

Could that be you? Well, we're a diverse bunch and that means we're always looking for people to enrich our studio with fresh points of view. So it doesn't really matter if you're a quiet crafter, an off-the-wall thinker or both of the above – as long as you're vibrant, ambitious and eager to collaborate then we want to hear from you.

ALLOW US TO INTRODUCE OURSELVES...

At Taxi Studio, producing work that sets the bar ridiculously high is our creative priority. Be that for breakout brands or global giants, every single one of our superstars has a decisive role to play.

People come to us with awesome creative instincts and an enthusiasm to embrace what we're all about. They leave with a bunch of brilliant experiences; confident in the knowledge they've grown ten feet taller and been part of a pretty special culture.

So what's our vibe?

It's the sh*ts and giggles. The home from home. Knowing you've 'got this', but everyone still has your back. Feeling overwhelmingly valued by your team... and all of this is underwritten by 3 core values:

1. Real Relationships – with our people and our clients. We are down to earth and say it as we see it – we value long-term relationships and behave accordingly.
2. Fearlessness – we like to push the boundaries and develop big ideas that transcend specific mediums, blowing our clients' socks off in the process.
3. Fairness – we treat others as we wish to be treated ourselves.

That means that when you work at Taxi Studio you won't just get a competitive remunerative and benefits package – you'll also get to work with people who are as nice and talented as you are.

THIS ROLE IS FOR YOU IF...

You're brilliant at:

Versatility:

- Having the skills and ability to turn your hand to multiple illustration styles that bring to life the creative vision.
- Sketching, crafting, retouching and visualising 3D objects and environments.
- Supporting in the creation and realisation of brand identity, activations and PR imagery.
- Using a wide range of creative programmes: excellent in Photoshop, Illustrator and have advanced Photoshop image manipulation skills.
- Cinema 4D.

Illustrating & Visualising:

- Composing your illustrations and visuals in an organised and logical fashion making it easy for the wider design team to use.
- Assisting the creative team in realising the creative vision set by them and their reference points whilst also inputting and collaborating with ideas and suggestions.
- Creating both hand-drawn sketches and mac visuals to meet design briefs with exacting standards and attention to detail.
- Understanding how lighting works from a photographic standpoint and how this effects the illustration and composition you may be working on.

Collaboration:

- Being eager to learn; passionate about illustration / visualisation and keeping up to date with the latest industry trends.
- Thinking imaginatively and creatively to produce new ideas.
- Being able to assess the requests on any given project and calmly articulate time needed to achieve the desired results.
- Willing to offer opinions and suggestions on new ways or new art directions that you think may be appropriate to a particular project.

HOW WE SAY THANKS

It's the people that make the studio, so we make sure we reward ours generously. That means when you work with us, you can expect all the usual goodies (breakfast, parties, Friday booze, studio lunches, and all the tea and coffee your heart desires) and then some.

- Generous personal development and inspiration budget to spend as you wish
- Regular inspiration workshops
- Competitive salary with annual pay reviews
- Flexible working options
- Bonus of up to 10% of salary
- Enhanced maternity and paternity package
- Life Assurance
- Health Cash Plan
- 23 days holiday (which increases with length of service up to a maximum of 30 days), plus bank holidays, your birthday off, and a Christmas shut down period
